

QUIZ PROGRAMME ON SVEEP

THE MADRAS SANSKRIT COLLEGE

01
The Govt of India had advised all the institutions across the nation to form Electoral Literacy Club for Systematic Voters Education and Electoral Participation.

02

A quiz program was conducted in the Sanskrit-week celebrations of the academic year 2022-23 in The Madras Sanskrit College, Mylapore, Chennai.

03

Dr. S. Arunasundaram, Dr. Akhileshwara Mishra & Dr. G. Visalam are the members of Electoral Literacy Club holding the positions of President, Secretary & Co-ordinator respectively.

WHEN TRADITION MET MODERNITY

Knowing the traditional background of the students, one might wonder how would the Sanskrit students participate in an English quiz programme? But those who were present in the Abhinava Vidya Teertha Auditorium and witnessed the quiz programme, had no other choice but getting astonished. Thanks to Dr. G. Visalam, Asst. Prof. English, who took the leading role in preparing and presenting such a wonderful program. Dr. Akhileshwara Mishra gave a detailed introduction about the Indian political system with Vedic references. After that, a short intro about the SVEEP program was given by Shri. Jayanarayanan in Tamil. Then, Dr. G. Visalam took over and gave an intro in English and explained the rules for the quiz.

By that time, the audience were well warmed up to witness the great programme. Students of various batches took part and competed as 4 teams. Each team had four members. The teams were named after legends of Indian Constitutional Committee.

Team-1 Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

Team-2 Shri Rajendra Prasad

Team-3 Shri V.T. Krishnamachary

Team-4 Shri B. N. Rau

The quiz was conducted in three rounds by Dr. Visalam which had general round, rapid fire, buzzer round with negative marking and what not! Throughout the program the students from the audience section and the lecturers were clapping, cheering and having a great time.
